FLAT-FOOTED!!!

It there is one thing mice dispusting than another, it is to take up and commence reading what purports to be a good story; then, as you get interested, have the thing slide into a miserable quack advertisement. Each a paper should be sat upon; and if the man so taken in has the proper ring, he will request an introduction to the Editor. Such a dodge is a fraud, and the goods are worthires. Why not come out #### and say that you have to sell, for instance, TOBACCO.

First, let the HORSE HEAD BRAND be mentioned. A purchaser went to a Sales' Stable. The hostler led out for inspection a horse in good condition and smooth-coated, The buyer, however, thought he was too ancient for his use. The hostler, on the sty, injected a little of that Brand in a liquid state into the horse's eye. The effect was magicalit restored the animal to equine youth ; and there was a cult resulver prancing around the yard. No hostler should be without it. And then there is,

During the stay of the Flying Squadron at Sydney, Lord Clanwilliam suffered from slight stroke of paralysis. Referring to this, an Australian paper says: "The nervous affection from which the Earl of Clanwilliam is suffering may be attributed to the severe wound he re ceived in the China war of 1858, when serving under Admiral Sir Michael Seymour. A round shot struck him on the point of the elbow, taking part of the bone off, and for years the Earl has suffered sleepless nights and intense pain. With extraordinary obstinacy he has always refused to have the arm amputated, B. M. S. Gannett. although urged to submit to the operation by such surgeons as Sir James Paget, and the late Sir William Ferguson. Lord Clanwilliam is a young Admiral, although he has aged in appearance very much of late, and the partial stroke of paralysis is therefore a cause for anxiety. His maimed arm is fitted with a peculiar con the form of a plate is so constructed that, on closing it, by relaxing the muscles, the hand is again expanded, the Admiral possessing the power of shutting his hand, but is unable to open it without this spring.

Laying the Corner Stone of the New Kaumakapili Church-

The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new Kaumakapili Church took place yesterday afternoon. The walls of the basement story, which is to be used for meetings, the Sabbothschool, &c., are already completed, and the floor of the church proper is laid. The "corner stone," laid yesterday, forms part of one of the lower corners of the wall of the church. For the convenience of those who had been invited to be present at the ceremony, the contractor had, considerately, roofed-in the whole area of the church with canvat, and seats for all the usual members of the congregation, and for a large number of expected visitors, had been pro-

The proceedings were opened with a hymn sung by the choir of the church, and a prayer by the Rev. A. O. Forbes, Rev. J. N. Paikuli then read and expounded an appropriate passage of scripture. After another hymn, Mr. J. W. Naukana, on behalf of the Rev. M. Kuaea, read a sketch of the movement which led to the conconstruction of a new church at Kaumakapili, from the time that the idea was first mooted, up M. Comly, Minister Resident of the United to the present day. The Rev. H. H. Parker delivered a lengthy and eloquent address appropriate to the occassion. After music by the band, Mr. Kalama followed with an account of the contents of the box which was about to be deposited beneath the corner stone. The list runs as follows :- Pictures of Hawaiian Kings ; also of H. R. H. the Princess Regent ; of Queens Kashumanu, Kalama, Emma and Kapiolani : of H. R. H. Princess Likelike; H. R. H. Census of Hawaiian Islands for 1880. Her Royal Highness then laid the mortar for the reception of the corner stone, which was lowered to its place under the superintendance of the contractor, Mr. S. D. Burrows, and the superintendent of the masonry work, Mr. Thos. B. Walker. The formal laying of the stone was then performed by Her Royal Highness, the band meanwhile playing a strain from the Naan appropriate prayer, a pule hoanoho-offered of the Building Fund followed, the band meanwhile discoursing some beautiful music of a sacred character. After another hymn by the choir, the Rev. Lowell Smith pronounced the benediction, and the large assembly rapidly dispersed. The whole of the proceedings were conducted in the Hawaiian language. We regret that the presure of other matter on our space has obliged Mr. Parker, and of the historical sketch read by Mr. Naukana. A full report will be given in the ELELE POARGLO, of the 7th inst.
